

Insurance

Health insurance is available and, residents and fellows who elect to participate in the plan must pay a portion of health insurance cost; the type of coverage chosen (single or family) will determine the amount the resident or fellow has to contribute. Complete details are available from the UP&S benefits coordinator.

University Physicians & Surgeons provides life and disability insurance at no cost to the resident or fellow.