

Residency Advisory Committee

The Resident Advisory Committee membership is peer selected and there should be one representative from each year of training within a specific specialty. This group meets at least quarterly with the Senior Associate Dean for Graduate Medical Education/DIO to discuss issues affecting graduate medical education.