

Equal opportunity policy statement

It is the policy of Marshall University to provide equal opportunities to all prospective and current members of the student body, residents, faculty and staff based on individual qualifications and merit without regard to race, sex, religion, sexual orientation, age, handicap or national origin. This nondiscrimination policy also applies to all educational programs and activities as they pertain to admission, employment, and other related activities covered under Title IX which prohibits sex discrimination in higher education. Marshall University neither affiliates with nor grants recognition to any individual, group or organization having policies that discriminate on the basis of race, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, handicap or national origin.
