

Health science library

The Health Sciences Library is located on the second floor of the Marshall Medical Center, adjacent to Cabell Huntington Hospital. It serves the faculty, staffs, and students of Marshall University and Cabell-Huntington Hospital. The public is welcome to use the Library, but only those with Marshall or Cabell-Huntington ID's may check out books.

Library Hours during Fall and Winter Sessions

Monday-Thursday 8:00am-11:00 pm

Friday 8:00am-5:00 pm

Saturday 10:00am-5:00 pm

Sunday 1:00pm-10:00 pm

After-hours access is available by MU ID card swipe.

The collection includes about 16,000 books and about 400 journal subscriptions. Journal holdings are the current 5 years. Older articles can be requested via Interlibrary Loan. Many of the journal subscriptions are available online. Access is through the HSL web page. A branch at the Robert W. Coon Medical Education Building at the Veterans Affairs Facility serves VA staff and Marshall Medical School faculty and students.

The Library has two study rooms that are available on a first-come-first-served basis. Our Conference room has a capacity of eight people and can be reserved for group-use by calling Circulation at (691-1750). House phones are located in room 2403L and at the Circulation Desk.

All of our information systems are Internet based. For Medline searching use PubMed. Our books are cataloged in the Miles system, which is a union catalog of all libraries at Marshall University. These resources are accessible from any PC that is linked to the Internet including the six workstations in our Library. For help with any research or Medline searching, contact Bob Williams at 691-1762 or e-Mail williamr@marshall.edu. For links to the above sites, information about library services, and other Internet resources link to the Library home page at <http://musom.marshall.edu/library/>.

Photocopies cost $.10 each. In order to have charges for library services billed to departments, residents should request that their departments add their names to the Library Privileges list.
