

NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

The Academy of Medical Educators at Marshall University, Joan C. Edwards School of Medicine (JCESOM) is a professional organization established in 2004. The mission of the JCESOM’s Academy of Medical Educators is to build excellence in teaching by supporting and nurturing pre-eminent medical educators, improving curriculum and advancing educational scholarship.

The Academy brings together like-minded professionals to support the educational mission of the Marshall University, JCESOM. The Academy invites all medical school faculty who participate in our education programs to apply for membership in the Academy.

Some Benefits of Academy Membership:

- Eligibility to apply for Innovative Educational Project (iEP) funding
- Mentoring opportunities (Give & Get)
- Assistance in educational scholarship and publication

How to Apply:

The first step in applying for membership is to choose a membership category for which you are eligible and that best fits your involvement, achievements, and professional development goals in teaching and education.

For membership categories & a basic application visit:

<http://musom.marshall.edu/fdp/academy.asp>

Complete the basic application, attach your updated curriculum vitae, & submit to Rockel6@marshall.edu, Office of Faculty Affairs and Professional Development, by May 30, 2013.

May 30	Deadline to submit the basic application
July 15	Applicants notified for additional supporting documents
August 15	Deadline to submit additional supporting documents
August 20 to October 15	Internal and External peer review
November 15	New members announced
December 10	Academy Annual symposium Academy member induction ceremony

Promoting Excellence in Education

