

The Curriculum at a Glance provides current and future students an idea of the overall course structure of medical school. It is not an enforceable contract and is subject to change without notice. The MD Curriculum is comprised of two phases—Phase I is the preclerkship phase of the MD Curriculum and Phase II is the clinical clerkship phase.

PHASE ONE, PART 1 — FOUNDATIONS OF HEALTH AND DISEASE
July					August (13 months)
Cellular and Molecular Basis of Health and Disease	NBME	Oncology and Hematology	NBME	Orthopedics and The Neural Network	NBME/OSCE	Gastroenterology and Nutritional Sciences	NBME/OSCE	Summer and Research Elective
15 weeks		6 weeks		15 weeks		6 weeks		9 weeks
Physicians in Practice – Global and Local Issues in Medicine Humanism and Ethics Bias Training Economics and Law of Medicine Clinical and Translational Science Team Building and Communicating with a Patient Portfolio				Patient Care and Clinical Skills Early Patient Interactions

PHASE ONE, PART 2 — FOUNDATIONS OF HEALTH AND DISEASE
August			April (9 months)
Cardiovascular, Renal and Respiratory Systems	NBME/OSCE		Hormones and Human Reproduction	NBME/OSCE	USMLE STEP 1
15 weeks			10 weeks
Patient Care and Clinical Skills Early Patient Interactions

PHASE TWO, PART 1 — REQUIRED CLINICAL EXPERIENCES
May						June (13 months)
Rotation 1	NBME	Rotation 2	NBME	Rotation 3	NBME	Rotation 4	NBME	Rotation 5	NBME	Rotation 6	NBME	Rotation 7
8 weeks		8 weeks		8 weeks		8 weeks		8 weeks		8 weeks		8 weeks
Family Medicine		Internal Medicine		Neuro/Psych		Surgery		Ob/Gyn		Pediatrics		Research/Away Rotations/Electives

PHASE TWO, PART 2 — CAREER EXPLORATION
July				May (11 months)
ER	ICU	NBME	Sub - Internships	Career Electives Research/Away Rotations/Electives
2 weeks	2 weeks		4 weeks	28 weeks

NBME (National Board of Medical Examiner’s exam)
OSCE (Objective Structured Clinical Exam)