

Curriculum at a Glance

The Curriculum at a Glance provides current and future students an idea of the overall course structure of medical school. It is not an enforceable contract and is subject to change without notice. The MD Curriculum is comprised of two phases—Phase I is the preclerkship phase of the MD Curriculum and Phase II is the clinical clerkship phase.

PHASE ONE, PART 1 — FOUNDATIONS OF HEALTH AND DISEASE
August							→ July (12 months)
Molecular and Cellular Foundations	Microbiology and Host Defense	Inter-session	Hematology and Oncology	The Musculo-skeletal System	The Neural Network	Nutrition and Gastro-enterology	Summer and Research Elective (7 weeks)
6 weeks	6 weeks	1 week	6 weeks	5 weeks	10 weeks	6 weeks
Physicians in Practice – Global and Local Issues in Medicine Humanism and Ethics Bias Training Economics and Law of Medicine Clinical and Translational Science Portfolio				Patient Care and Clinical Skills Early Patient Interactions
PHASE ONE, PART 2 — FOUNDATIONS OF HEALTH AND DISEASE
July			→ December (5 months)		December - March
Cardiovascular, Renal and Respiratory Systems			Hormones and Human Reproduction		NBME CBSA
14 weeks			6 weeks		9 weeks
Patient Care and Clinical Skills Early Patient Interactions
PHASE TWO, PART 1 — REQUIRED CLINICAL EXPERIENCES
March					→ February (12 months)
Rotation 1	Rotation 2	Rotation 3	Rotation 4	Rotation 5	Rotation 6
8 weeks	8 weeks	8 weeks	8 weeks	8 weeks	8 weeks
Family Medicine	Internal Medicine	Neuro/ Psych	Surgery	Ob/Gyn	Pediatrics
PHASE TWO, PART 2 — CAREER EXPLORATION
March					→ April (14 months)
ER	ICU	Sub - Internships		Career Exploration Research/Away Rotations/Electives
2 weeks	2 weeks	4 weeks		36 weeks			