CME & LEARNING LECTURES*

1:15 to 2 p.m.

Beyond the Exam Room: An Introduction to Population Health and Its Impact on Modern Care

Harless Auditorium

Chad R. Smith MD, MHA, FAAP ('00)

Chief Population Health Officer, Marshall Health Network

Dr. Smith will examine the definition of population health, distinguish it from individual clinical care, and analyze the social, economic, and environmental drivers that shape health outcomes. He will also highlight the critical roles of data, care coordination, and community collaboration in advancing population well-being.

2:15 to 3 p.m.

Vaccines, Times Are A'changing

CINDY WARREN RETIREMENT CELEBRATION

Saturday, Sept. 13, 2025

11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

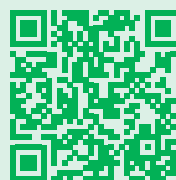

Brad D. Smith Foundation Hall

Cindy Warren, assistant dean for admissions and student affairs, retired in December 2024 after nearly 50 years. She joined the School of Medicine in 1977 and worked to admit the very first class—and every class since.

Cindy has demonstrated an unwavering dedication, exceptional skill and a deep commitment to our students, alumni and school. Her leadership in the Office of Admissions helped shape our then-fledgling medical school into a vibrant ecosystem for education, research and innovation.

She has left a lasting legacy on the lives of our more than 2,200 alumni who still remember vividly the day Cindy called with news of their acceptance to medical school.

In recognition of Cindy's extraordinary service, we are excited to announce a significant naming opportunity in her honor. Details will be shared soon. In the meantime, we are asking each of our graduates to consider a gift of $500 (or more) to help us reach our ultimate goal of $1 million (2,000 alums x $500). Of course, gifts of any amount are deeply appreciated and will contribute to this special tribute.
